October 24, 2018

Dear Colleague,

The Jackson District Library is pleased to announce the fifteenth annual, “Poets Among Us: Young Poets Contest 2019.” With nearly 12,000 student entries during the first fourteen years, this event has proven to be very successful with students, teachers and parents. Over the years, entries have been received from entire classrooms, as well as students participating on their own who have a love of poetry. Poems have covered subjects as diverse as animals, divorce, hard times, family fun, friendships, sunsets, and war, to name just a few. I would like to thank you for your past support and encourage your participation in this year’s program.

The contest is open to all students in grades Kindergarten through 12 and all home-schooled students in Jackson County. Included in the attached information is a list of websites for teachers and descriptions of various types of poetry. This packet also contains the necessary materials and forms to allow you to incorporate the contest into your schedule including the Student Rules and Registration Form to be completed by each student. (One form must accompany each poem submitted.) Please note that entries must be submitted online or postmarked by February 1, 2019.

A panel of poetry judges will review all the entries submitted. We will publish the award-winning poems in a small booklet and on our website. In addition, the top poets in each grade level will be given the opportunity to read their poems at the Young Poets Awards program to be held in April 2019.

Please encourage all of your students to enter the contest. Every poem is a possible winner, and the members of our Poetry Panel will enjoy reading all the poems they judge. The poems will become the property of the Library and will not be returned, so please be sure that your students retain copies of their submission. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Rhonda Farrell-Butler at (517) 788-4099, ext. 1317 or butlerr@myjdl.com, between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on weekdays.

Thank you, again, for all your assistance in making the Young Poets Contest such a success. We deeply appreciate your continuing support.

Sincerely,

Sara Tackett, Director

PLAGIARISM ALERT

Plagiarism is a great concern! If we were to choose a poem as a winning entry and then find out it had been plagiarized, it would be an embarrassment to all concerned. The judges will be reading hundreds of poems and cannot be expected to recognize any poems that may have been copied, so we are asking for your help.

Plagiarism is the act of stealing or copying the ideas or words of others to use as one's own without giving credit to the original source. PLEASE explain to your students what plagiarism is and how serious an offense it is. We have to guess that some students do not really understand what plagiarism is and that copying someone else's work is a serious offense. What they submit should be their own, original creation.

We know that you have a lot of responsibilities and duties, but we would appreciate your assistance in addressing this issue with your students. For our part, if we have questions about the authenticity of any submission, we will check it against the poetry sources and our literature database for possible plagiarism.

Thank you for your support in this important matter.

TYPES OF POETRY

Acrostic - a poem where the first letter of each line spells a word that can be read vertically.

Alphabet - Each line begins with the letters of the alphabet in order; a, b, c, d.

Ballad - a ballad is a story song that often has a refrain or chorus and set to music.

Cinquain - a type of poetry in which the first line has one word, the second has two words describing the first line, the third line shows action with three words, the fourth line has four words that convey feeling, and the fifth line refers to line one.

Color - A poem about your favorite color. Express your feelings about a single color with analogies or similes or list nouns which are (or remind you of) that color. Another easy form is to use the 5 senses-looks like, sounds like, smells like, tastes like, feels like.

Diamante - The Diamante is a form similar to the Cinquain. The text forms the shape of a diamond.

Epitaph - See the anti-smoking poems at Poetry Teachers <http://www.poetryteachers.com/poetclass/lessons/smokepoem.html>.

Free Verse - poetry that is written material freed from paragraph form and has rhythm, but no rhyme.

Haiku - the haiku is a three lined Japanese poem about nature. This particular type of poetry has a limit on the amount of syllables you can have for each line. The first line always has five syllables. The second line has seven syllables. The third line has the same amount as the first line.

I Wish - Each line of the poem begins with the words "I wish" and then you fill in your ideas.

Limerick - a limerick is humorous nonsense verse consisting of a triplet and couplet, making it a five line poem. Lines one, two, and five are the triplet and rhyme. The third and fourth lines form a rhyming couplet.

Monster Poem - Describe an imaginary monster. Try to have a theme (food, sports, animals, school subjects etc.)

Rhyming – Couplets, triplets, and quatrains are made up of two, three, and four lines. These poems are often silly and have a rhythm with the last words in each line rhyming.

CRITERIA CHART FOR JUDGING POETRY

The Poetry Panel has provided us with this chart as an example of the criteria that is used for reviewing poetry entries. Poetry contestants may find it helpful to use these when writing their poetry.

CRITERIA:

- Theme – does the poem give readers a specific idea or perspective on a subject?
- Originality – does the poem offer a new or different way of thinking or feeling about that idea?
- Language – are the words precise and does their arrangement create a unified impression? Are the sounds appealing: is there rhyme (for instance, alliteration, consonance, internal rhyme, end rhyme, slant rhyme) and is there a rhythm (or beat)?
- Imagery – does the poem use figurative language (simile, metaphor) to create a vivid description and appeal to readers’ senses and imagination?
- Impact – does the poem evoke an emotional response from readers?
- Technical details – are spelling and usage appropriate to the poem’s subject? (Sometimes a poet captures a style of speech by manipulating spelling).
